an answer, it sings because it has a song."* Maya Angelou

Four leading industry bodies have joined hands to host the Women's Day celebration for 2010. The POA is supported in this initiative by the Financial Planning Institute (FPI), the Institute of Retirement Funds (IRF) and the Pension Lawyers Association (PLA).

Aim of the celebration

The story of women in business today is the story of achievement. We all agree that over the past century women have made tremendous gains collectively. We are politicians, financial advisors and CEOs, to name a few. So it might look as if gender issues in the work place have been solved. But we know that there are still barriers to many women. Now more than ever we have to keep our skills sharper, our sights higher and our motivation stronger. Let us not allow gender fatigue to prevent us from sharing our song, firstly, and from empowering all women, ultimately.

giving

We give ...

The question we always ask ourselves is: "How can we make a difference?" This powerful event will enable you, as an affluent member of society, to make a positive difference in the life of an elderly person.

We receive ...

Communicating with confidence and authority is not a skill that comes naturally to most. A special session will be dedicated to the communication secrets (songs) of successful and influential women, in a topic called "How to ask for what you want without selling your soul".
